(22 October 2024, Hong Kong) Next stop: Hong Kong!

Phileas Fogg and his valet Jean Passepartout – from French writer Jules Verne's famous novel Around the World in Eighty Days – have taken on a challenge to travel around the globe. After setting off from London, they finally make it to Hong Kong!

This year, Hong Kong's largest outdoor youth arts festival, Standard Chartered Arts in the Park, takes inspiration from Jules Verne's acclaimed tale of adventure. Between 30 November and 1 December, join us for an around-the-world weekend getaway in Causeway Bay with Phileas Fogg, Passepartout and our flamboyant giant puppets!

Organised by Hong Kong Youth Arts Foundation (HKYAF), Standard Chartered Arts in the Park is sponsored by Standard Chartered Community Foundation and powered by Standard Chartered Bank (Hong Kong) Limited, with support from the Hong Kong Tourism Board.

The two-day event features a puppet parade, 15 creative arts booths, 70 non-stop live performance groups, finger-popping African drumming workshops, engaging live storytelling, a display of over 1,000 pieces of creative art work, and meet-and-greet sessions with 10 giant puppets.

See our four-metre-tall giant puppets up close

On Sunday, 1 December at 2:30pm, the hugely popular Grand Finale Parade sets off from Victoria Park, heads along Great George Street and past Sogo before looping back to East Point Road. The parade features 10 four-metre-tall puppets and 500 young people, including 400 students from 100 local schools and 4 groups of professional dancers. Join us along the route and get to see some colourful characters from Around the World in Eighty Days up close!

A creative showcase celebrating diverse cultures

Taking inspiration from the globe-spanning adventures of Phileas Fogg and Passepartout, this year's creative artwork showcases heritage artefacts like the Egyptian Sphinx, exotic elephants and snakes, and colourful modes of transport like ships and balloons! In addition, local giant puppet artist Jimmy Hsieh works his magic again this year presenting a giant Phileas Fogg puppet — dressed in a steampunk-style suit decorated with cogs and clocks.

About Standard Chartered Arts in the Park

Standard Chartered Arts in the Park is an annual youth education programme through the arts. The six-month programme provides participants with exciting opportunities that help improve their self-confidence and enhance important life skills such as creativity, team spirit and leadership. Every year, the programme culminates in a two-day, free admission family-oriented arts carnival that nurtures positivity, creativity and appreciation of Hong Kong's talented youth.

Launched in 2001, Standard Chartered Arts in the Park first took place at Stanley Plaza. Since then, the event has become the largest outdoor youth arts festival in Hong Kong, moving to Victoria Park in Causeway Bay in 2008. In 2012, the Grand Finale Parade expanded out of the park and onto the streets of Causeway Bay, and in 2013 the very first illuminated Night Parade took place. In 2020, a week-long online programme was launched to help children get creative at home. Each year, over 3,500 young people come together with local and overseas organisations to produce vibrant costumes and giant puppets for spectacular street parades, plus a variety of stage performances and art stalls, attracting over 190,000 visitors each year previously.
